BEIGHT SAID IT WOLLDN'T BE HAED TO GO I P 10,000 FEET.

with a Yardstick A 700 Foot Slide stone Arch Hoxsey Flashes kind in ter tream suit Less Remotely.

> cas N. J. Aug. 13 - Raigh housas city at the aviation me he had looked upon stop Little Willie, Jr , who had stood near and apolo ther's lack of experience; dirigible balloon builder Dixon, the fifteen-yearknown as the dirigible rner back of the gaping first gentleman that ever with premeditation went ir Wright, who gauged ght by a yardstick method. nly one of his inventions splain to any one in all de-

excited discussions about same faces that were gazing aloft public city brought his sausage fit's usual way, which is ing quickly forward along od straddling the frame lrigible's ears if figured Johnstone's feet at one time when when at one time when aking a turn at the north When passing over the Wright gauged the and gave the aviator ert when at his highest than alighting that he is high as 5,000 feet, but

r dips during his flights which have made him the eastern side of the eastern side of the eastern side of the ight to his feet with in-ee Hoxsey had been to while dipping. Teacher everybody that Hoxsey than 200 feet inside the ed so had not disobeyed arman biplane and still machine on the grounds the crowds will have care Clifford Harmon and peal in the lists with the definations A Edison, who is to be the guest of honor and the beautiful have an experiently Wright biplane which is way here from Dayton and tenant of Ireland, Dies in London. Special Cable Desputch to THE SUN. LONDON, Aug. 13.-J. Poyntz Spencer. Successor to Old Napoleonic Title Was Earl Spencer, twice Lord Lieutenant of Ireland and a partisan of home rule under Gladstone, died here to-day. He had been ailing for a considerable time died to-day. He was 70 years of age. and his death was hourly expected for having been born in Paris in 1840.

John Poyntz Spencer was the fifth Earl Spencer and was commonly known as the Red Earl because of the color of his beard. He was at one time the been an equerry to King Charles XV of mer his pupil was topping public life five years ago, consequent upon a stroke of apoplexy, was one of the most influential men in English poliupon a stroke of apoplexy, was one of the most influential men in English politics.

The late Earl Spencer was the only son of the fourth Earl. He was born on October 27, 1835. His mother, the first wife of the fourth Earl, was Elizabeth, daughter of Stephen William Poyrtz of Cowdray Park. Sussex. He was educated at Harrow and at Trinity College. Cambridge, where he took his degree to the absence of transits. Sicials of the Aero Club chails like that.

If get up to a jumping off of Commors.

the very young mother leader considered as being of great promise the kits fluttered toward them. In his second administration in Ireland dearse, hush' cried Dearie's measures which he had to enforce. For the moment was most emone reason or another he never realized the expectations based on his start in public life the dachshunds in the Young estate kennels placed end to end.

The killing of Benny Prinz last night traused the officials to call the parachute his ability to open safes. In early life the invented an apple parer and at one jumpers off for to-day, but it is expected time he turned out twelve dozen a day of these at his factory at Ware. The that they will make the jumps regularly GLADSTONIAN PEER PASSES. Superintendent for Blackail & Baldwin, manufacturers of electrical supplies, New York city.

DUC D'OTRANTE DIES.

Attached to Swedish Court.

Special Cable Bespatch to THE St. Paris, Aug. 13. The Duke d'Otrante

Gustave Armand, Comte Fouché and the case of the Aero Club betaits like that it is a long to a sumping of a state it at about 4 000 feet of the Aero Club betaits like that it is do the earlier of the flower of the alministration of in a course about five counference and so high that it is do the engine could not be when Milon Ross was not in the course of the engine could not be when Milon Ross was not in the country bill. Loss feet below him Freidy et an ancient laundry bill. Loss feet below him Freidy et an ancient laundry bill. Loss feet below him Freidy et an ancient laundry bill. Loss feet below him Freidy et an ancient laundry bill. Loss feet below him Freidy et an in the course, the in shorter circles his dirig, ac Janusage. About 1,000 feet in what was the write of his motor drowned see of his ice cream circles of his ice cream circles. Act would have a subject to the proposition of the capture of the course of his ice cream circles. The many his proposition of the capture of the course of the course of the course of the capture of the course of the course children survive, one being Sarah, wife they certainly have a sense of modesty Several of James J. Van Alen's reachildren survive, one being Sarah, wife they certainly have a sense of modesty Several of James J. Van Alen's reachildren survive, including his brother-in-law, John of Capt. W. P. Potter of the United States that is purely their own. Would you tives, including his brother-in-law, John believe, they even pulled up my skirts Jacob Astor, were among those seated to see my legs! No American man would at his dinner party last Tuesday at Wakethe American man immensely. He is always well groomed, smart and elegant Everything about him suggests that he has a daily bath. In dealing with women he may not have the Frenchman's esprit, charm and delicate little ways, but he is all right. "In the is all right." It he is all right. but he is 'all right."

In answer to a question as to what she thought of the appearance of the American woman she replied:

He was at one time the been an equerry to King Charles XV of as the American man. She dresses will give a dinner for Rear Admiral and Sweden and Norway. His first wife was the Baroness Bonde, a Swedish lady; the Baroness Bonde, a Swedish lady; the second was the widow of Earl Grey, by birth also a Swede, born Baroness Stellar it will suit her or not. It is a fine hat. Wetmore will give a big dinner, as will also the second was the widow of Earl Grey, by birth also a Swede, born Baroness Stellar it will suit her or not. It is a fine hat. immense feathers. They are mad for feathers over there. If they were not afraid of stepping on them they would have them sweeping to their feet.

"I am speaking of the American woman in now solely as a woman. As audiences, both men and women in America are charming. They have great taste for the theatre. They know music well soon for Europe. and are quick to recognize and appreciate the efforts of an artist to please them. In a word, they love art."

made his debut as a minstrel, and after washing off the black told how it was that Jeff didn't win the fight.

George Evans's Honey Boy Minstrels, presenting a "spectacular festival of The wedding of Miss Belle G Stone America's time honored entertainment. circle in a brilliant first part scene entitled "The Crimson Trellis." He touching ditty ending

When the old oaken bucket was new.

in disease, hosh? Greed Deares, the forty across shareh les and to enforce. However, the proposed of the state of the control of the control which probably will be tooled along by La Chappell

George W Young, the New York banker, who has an estate of 400 acres just north of the Interlaken Aviation Field, to-day invited half a dozen flying fans to luncheson and then showed them the plot which he is going to turn into an aviation field of his own next spring. Mr. Young's guests were enthusiastic over the field, which is about one mile long and of a guest were enthusiastic over the field, which is about one mile long and of a kind that could not be spanned by all the dachshunds in the Young estate kind that could not be spanned by all the dachshunds in the Young estate kind that could not be end.

CHARLES PAIGE CURTER DEAD.

IMPRESSIONS OF POLAIRE

AMERICAN MAN ALL RIGHT, BIT WOMEN DRESS HORRIBLY.

Mrs. E. F. Shepard, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. William D Sloane, at Lenox of late, will go next Thursday to Bar Harbor to stay with her daughter, Mrs. Ernesto G. Fabbri. Mrs. William A. M. Burden went on from Lenox to New-port early in the week with her children, where she joined her mother and sister, Mrs. H. McR. Twombly and Miss Twombly. Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Hammond, who keennels placed end to end. Besides, the Man is Much More Modest, as Witness Certain Pedal Researches

Both Charming as Auditors Feather Madness Why Belaseo Lost a Star.

Special Cable Despatch to The Sex.

Paris, Aug. 13. Polaire, back in Paris once more, does not lear the slightest come more, does not lear the slightest come with their children early in the week.

caused the officials to call the paracture of the investigation of the world inder the Hudson River the Sachay Park to gaze aloft seared and to come and a back can be made at Sea displacement. Hudson River the Hudson River and the Rock and the Hudson River the Hudson River the Hudson River and Hudson River the Hudson River and Hudson River the Hudson River the Hudson River and Hudson River the Hudson River and Hudson River the Hudson River and Hudson River the Hudson River and Hudson River and Hudson River and Hudson River the Hudson River and Hudson River and Hudson River and Hudson River the Hudson River the Hudson River the Hudson River the Hudson River and Hudson River the Hudson River the have allowed himself to do that. I like hurst. Mrs. Condé Nast and Mrs. J. Fred

Mrs. T. Suffern Tailer will give a dinner to-morrow night at Honeysuckle Lodge, her Newport place. Mrs. Ogden Goelet "She is too slack in her appearance, also has cards out for a dinner. Next She does not make as good an impression Tuesday night Mrs. Royal Phelps Carroll horribly. She copies the Parisienne but Mrs. Schroeder, her guests going later Wetnerewill give a big dinner, as will also Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs at Roseciff, followed by music. The guests of these will go on afterward to the tennis ball. Among those who give dinners on August 1s are Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Heeckman and Mr and Mrs. J. Laurens Van Alen. Lis-Is are Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Beeckman and Mr and Mrs. J. Laurens Van Alen. Lis-penard Stewart will give a dinner next Friday night at White Lodge for his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Witherbee, and Miss Evelyn Witherbee, now his guests. They leave

Mr. and Mrs. J. Mitchell Clark, who passed the late July and early August days at their fishing camp in the Green Mountains, Vermont, opened Gray Craig. CORBETT NOW A MINSTREL.

Appears as a Black Face Artist with Evans's Honey Bleys.

Cauliflower ears and half gods were in evidence in the audience last night at the City Theatre, where James J. Corbett made his debut as a purestral and after

A dance will be given by Mrs. Henry Siegel next Saturday night at her country The occasion was the third tour of place at Orienta Point, which will be pre-ceded by several dinners in the locality.

and George S. Witmer will be celebrated commencing with the traditional semi- at Warrenton, Va., next Wednesday at at Warrenton. Va., next Wednesday at the country place of the bride's parents, ittled 'The Crimson Trellis'

James Meehan had just rendered touching ditty ending:

Life is sweet to me now,
But I'll never forget

When the old arbon had been in the employ of the Canal Commission for the past year. He is a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Mrs. Charles Tracy Barney is now a when Gentieman Jim was introduced her camp in the Adirondacks. She has midst the deafening applause of the with her Mrs. A. S. Alexander, her audience and the ear splitting whistles daughter. Mrs. Henry F. Dimock, her of the gallery gods. Jim was blacked up sister, now at Elsinore on the Clefstone and togged out in a red dress suit with road. Bar Harbor, is doing a deal of enterolive trimmings, and of course it was up taining. Mrs. Carv Hutchinson is also to Bones to bow and scrape and say. "Good evenin. Mistah Johnson." and of course everybody laughed, while Jim made out to be very much offended Later on he came out with the black all off and told about why Jeff lost the fight.

The standard of course it was up to Bones to bow and scrape and say. "Good evenin. Mistah Johnson." and of affairs. Harry Payne Whitney, one of the nephews of Mrs. Barney, was especially busy entertaining during the week at Newport on board his steam yacht Atlantic and at Narragansett Pier where he and Mrs. Whitney attended the pole of their friends.

Admiral Seaton Schroeder and officers of the Atlantic fleet. Next Saturday night Mrs. Goelet will give the second of two dinner dances for which cards have been out for some time at her cottage on the cliffs.

Ambassador and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid ere expected over soon from England and will go en to their camp in the Adiand will go on to their camp in the adi-rondacks. Their town house, Madison avenue and Fifty-first street, has been closed for some seasons. Mr. and Mrs. John Ward, who was Miss Reid, have not been over here since their marriage in London. As Mrs. Maturin Livingston has improved in health it is likely that her daughter, Mrs. Ogden Mills, will give some dinners while at Newport. Mrs. Cavendish Bentinck is now with her.

William Phillips, First Secretary of the Philips, who was Miss Caroline Astor Philips, who was Miss Caroline Aster Drayton, have just reached here from England to visit with Mr. Philips's mother. Mrs. John C. Phillips, at her summer cottage at Beverly, Mass. After their heneymoon trip they took a house in London. Mrs. Phillips is a niece of John Jacob Aster and a cousin of Miss May Van Alen now at Newport.

noon teas in the Japanese tea house on the slope are enjoyed by their friends. Mrs. French Vanderbilt is doing a lot of entertaining at Newport.

Mrs. Ava Willing Astor was the guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis S. Thompson at the McAlpin camp, on Spitfire Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson went on recently to the Adirondacks from their farm at Red Bank, N. J. Mrs. Astor will now be the guest of her brother.
J. R. Barton Wining, at Newport, who is Astor will now be the guest of her brother.

J. R. Barton Wining, at Newport, who is in the little cottage occupied so many summers by his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Willing of Philadelphia, and left to him by them. John Jacob Astor and his son, Vincent Astor, start to-day on their yacht for Bar Harbor, where they will remain for some days before returning to their residence at Rhinebeck.

last night at her Newport place, the Elms. Mr. and Mrs. R. Livingston Beeck-

Club was held yesterday at Newport.
The most recently elected members are Herbert M. Harriman, George I. Scott, Marsdon J. Perrie, Alfred G. Vanderbilt. Howard S. Graham, William E. Carter, Henry B. Kane and Leonard M. Thomas in London."

hope to get at home. English actors and actresses are famous over here that were never heard of at home. You are suffering over here in New York from a plethora of theatres, a plethora of inferior plays, and we have much of the same complaint in London."

A special bake is on for next Th ursday afternoon for Rear Admiral Schroeder. U. S. N., and the officers of the Atlance fleet, about 259 all told. Charles id. Oelrichs will preside, and the active committee includes Max Agassiz, Reginald C. Vanderbilt, R. Livingston Beeckman, Frederick H. Paine and William R. Hunten.

GLOOMY TALK ON THEATRES. Brother of Drury Lane Manager Hasn't a Cheerful Word to May.

Ernest Collins, a brother of Arthur Collins, who runs the Drury Lane Theatre in London, came over early in the summer to see whether he couldn't make arrangements with an American manager to take the shows of the big Len:don playhouse and produce them over here, but left for home yesterday disappointed.

Mr. Collins seemed to take a pessimistic view of most things theatrical in the course of a chat in the lobby of the Knick-England to visit with Mr. Phillips's mother, Mrs. John C. Phillips, at her summer cottage at Beverly, Mass. After their honeymoon trip they took a house in London. Mrs. Phillips is a niece of John Jacob Astor and a cousin of Miss May Van Alen now at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W Vanderbilt, at their camp, Pine Tree Point, in the Adirondacks, have been giving many luncheons and dinners. Informal afternoon teas in the Japanese tea house on the slope are enjoyed by their friends.

season in the winter and remains so until the melodrama opens in September.
But last year's melodrama, 'The Whip,' had such a successful run that it was decided to try an experiment in putting it on for a run after Easter. It was figured out that as they had all the costumes the expenses of a four weeks run would not be heavy. Fortunately the original cast was secured and they started in ready to close at the end of a month.

month.

"In spite of the death of the King the revival was a great success and the show was kept on for three months. Several American managers saw it, but none of them has taken kindly to the idea of them has taken kindly to the idea of bringing it over here. You see while you havre many big theatres there are none that have stages big enough to handle the productions like we do at Drury Lane. With our hydraulic and electric lifts we can set one scene forty feet above the scene that is on view and have the latter replaced in the time it takes to lower and raise the curtain. "England is suffering from a dearth man gave one also especialty for the of good actors, just as you seem to be Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Meyer and their daughters, the Misses Meyer, their house guests.

The annual meeting of the Clambake

Club annual meeting of the Clambake

Stern Brothers

To-morrow and Tuesday

An Exceptional Sale of

French Handmade Lace Curtains

at $3.50, 4.90, 5.75 and 7.50

Former Values $6.50 to 13.50 Pair

Monday, the Balance of their

Women's Tailored Walking Suits At Closing Out Prices

This Season's Styles, in desirable materials, for Present Wear,

at $8.50, 16.50, 22.50, and 30.00

Formerly from $39.50 to 70.00

Misses' & Girls' Summer Apparel At Final Reductions

$2.95, 6.50 Misses' Coat Suits, 14 to 20 years, Heretofore $9.75 to 14.75

$1.98 to 10.50 Misses' Dresses, 14 to 20 years, Heretofore $6.50 to 17.50

98° to 6.95 Girls' Dresses, 6 to 14 years, Heretofore $2.50 to 11.50 Also the Remainder of

Misses' and Girls' Wool Suits at $9.75, 16.50 Heretofore $24.50 to 37.50,

Oriental Carpets and Rugs

Recent Importations, including Persian and Turkish Weaves, in various sizes, At Moderate Prices

Special Sale To-morrow

Wilton Rugs, Sizes 9 by 12 ft., Best Quality, at $31.50, 38.50 Regular Prices $40.50 and 55.00

Other Sizes at Proportionate Reductions

Boys' and Young Men's Suits Exceptional Values

Boys' Woolen Russian, Sailor, Norfolk and Double-breasted Suits, $3.95, 5.00, 6.50 Formerly from $6.50 to 10.95

Young Men's Suits, in fancy mixtures, at $10.50, 14.50 white flannel and blue serge, Formerly from $14.50 to 21.50

Boys' Woolen Knickerbocker Trousers, in fancy mixtures and corduroy, 8 to 17 yrs., at 95c to 2.95 Formerly from $2.00 to 4.50

Balance of Boys' Washable Russian, Sailor, Norfolk and Double-breasted Suits, in broken sizes and odd lots, Were $2.95 to 4.95

West Twenty-third Street

All Styles and Leathers ($2.45 Five Dollar Values

Misses' & Children's

Strap Walking Pumps, Gibson Ties, Oxfords and six and seven strap Open-work Boots. Tan or Black Russian Calf, Black or White Buckskin, Patent Leather or White Canvas:

8½ to 11 11½ to 2 2½ to 5½ $1.50 $1.75 $2.25 Values $2.25 to $4.00

Broadway & 20th St.; 5th Ave.; 19th St.

Children's Broad Toe Boots

Our shoes have the style, the distinctiveness and the comfort that can be produced only by hand-craft. Especially noticeable in our children's shoes moderately priced and carefully fitted in the Greelan Room our new children's department.

FRANK BROTHERS

Fifth Avenue Boot Shop, Fifth Avenue, between 26th and 27th Sts.